PROFESSIONAL SYNOPSIS

In a career spanning more than 25 years, Mr. Walden has held leadership positions in several Central Florida businesses. He has served these businesses in the capacity of Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operations Officer, and Controller. As the owner of Byron Walden & Associates, he provided accounting, income tax, and consulting services to individuals and small business owners. He sold his practice in 2001 when he co-founded Inductive Logic Systems, Inc., a building automation and management systems business dedicated to the commercial construction market. In 2005 he joined Fishkind & Associates, Inc. where he utilizes his accounting and business experience as a senior associate on the litigation support team.
